IN THE MATTER OF:)

Administrative Action

DANIEL MCGEE, D.P.M.)
License No. 25MD00198900)

FINAL ORDER OF REMEDIATION

TO PRACTICE PODIATRY IN THE)
STATE OF NEW JERSEY)

This matter was opened to the New Jersey State Board of Medical Examiners (hereinafter "the Board") upon an investigation into the podiatry practice of Daniel McGee, D.P.M. (hereinafter "the Respondent"). The Respondent and the Board previously entered into an August 1, 2004 Interim Agreement to Modify Practice in Lieu of More Formal Order (the "Interim Agreement"), which was filed with the Board on August 25, 2004. Without an admission of any wrongdoing, in the Interim Agreement, the Respondent agreed to the imposition of a number of conditions upon his podiatry practice. Those conditions included the Respondent's refraining from performing certain podiatric surgeries and from prescribing controlled dangerous substances, agreeing to have his patients' charts reviewed by a Board-approved podiatrist on a monthly basis, and the Respondent's successfully completing certain continuing medical education programs. The Respondent having met and complied with the Interim Agreement's conditions for more than twelve (12) months, and the Board beings satisfied that a Final Order of Remediation may be issued without risk to the public health, safety and welfare, and subject only to the Respondent's attendance at the New Jersey Podiatric Medical Society's Skin Biopsy Techniques/Medicare Update 2006 Continuing Medical Education Program, on December 7, 2005, which the Board hereby acknowledges the Respondent did attend,

IT IS ON THIS 17th DAY OF February, 2006,

ORDERED AND AGREED that the Respondent's license to practice podiatry be, and it hereby is, fully restored without condition.
